

Arts Series Programs 2011-2012

The First Presbyterian Church of Bristol, Tennessee, is pleased to announce the programs for its 2011-2012 Arts Series.

The Arts Series is designed to share with the community events that enrich and inspire the life of the people of Bristol, to share our unique and marvelous facilities, and to encourage the artistically gifted of our region and beyond. All programs take place in the church sanctuary, 701 Florida Ave.

For more information, call the church office or Steve and Vicki Fey, Directors of Music Ministry, at 423-764-7176; svfey@fpcbristol.org.

Sunday, November 6 – 3:00 p.m.

Internationally renowned flutist Eugenia Zukerman comes to Bristol! Having performed with many of the world's finest orchestras, she is also in great demand as a chamber musician and recitalist. Accompanying her will be Milana Strezeva, founding pianist of the Manhattan Piano Trio. Suggested ticket donation $15 adults/ $5 students age 6-college.

Sunday, February 25 – 3:00 p.m.

British organist Jeremy Filsell combines international performing and teaching activities with being Artist-in-Residence at Washington National Cathedral. Proficient on both piano and organ, he enjoys playing programs where he can make use of both instruments. This program is jointly sponsored with the Northeast Tennessee/Southwest Virginia chapter of the American Guild of Organists. Suggested ticket donation $10 adults/no charge-students.

Sunday, April 1 – 3:00 p.m.

Sevierville native Jeffery Whaley is currently on faculty at East Tennessee State University and serves as principal horn with Kingsport's Symphony of the Mountains. He has received recognition as a finalist and winner of several horn competitions sponsored by the International Horn Society. Suggested ticket donation $10 adults/$5 students age 6-college. This is the S.C. and Lillian Wolfe Memorial Concert.

Sunday, May 20 – 3:00 p.m.

The Russian vocal ensemble LYRA returns to Bristol, after having performed here in 2008. These singers are drawn from various choirs of St. Petersburg, Russia. Suggested ticket donation $10 adults/$5 students age 6-college.
